

Although the pit's been closed for over twenty five years I still meet up with one or two old mates that I worked with and it's just the same now as if we were still working together<sup>8</sup> "

Notes.

- 1) The mines of Shropshire, Ivor J. Brown, 1976, Moorland Publishing Company pp. 68, 73.
- 2) Notes on a display board at the visitors centre, Severn Valley Country Park.
- 3) The Wyre Forest Coalfield by D.Poyner and R.Evans, p.15, Cleobury Cronicles, Volume 3, 1994, Cleobury Mortimer History Society.
- 4) Document Stamped Salop County Council Planning Dept. 30/7/1971, National Coal Board, Staffs Area, Highley Collier Ref. 32/7584, An assessment of the volume of open workings, Alveley Shaft.
- 5) An interview recorded with Basil Morgan in June 1995.
- 6) An interview recorded with Bill Morgan in September 1995.
- 7) An interview recorded with Mr Tom Cadwallader of Highley by Gwyn Williams in 1983 as part of an 'A' level project looking into the social consequences of mining in the area.
- 8) An interview recorded with Mr John Wier, July 1995.